

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF DEL NORTE

COURT REPORTER INTERN PROGRAM
(currently on hold)

The Court Reporter Internship Program provides an exciting opportunity for qualified candidates to work in person at the Del Norte Superior Court as a paid intern working 16 hours a week. Interns will report to the Court Reporter (regular employee) and be assigned to shadow an official reporter in courtrooms that cover trials, preliminary hearings, and general calendars in criminal, juvenile, and/or family courts.

Interns must produce 10 pages of transcripts each week for review by the Court Reporter, including cover, appearance, and index pages. Candidates must be eligible to work in the United States.

DATES OF INTERNSHIP

Internship dates are flexible depending on the candidate's availability and are limited to a total of 8 consecutive weeks. Work hours are flexible depending on the candidate's availability but must be Monday through Friday, 8:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M. and/or 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.

COMPENSATION

Interns will be paid biweekly through W-9/1099 at the rate of $800/week ($50/hour for 16 hours) for 8 consecutive weeks ($6,400 total) after the 16-hour minimum has been achieved in a two-week pay period. If the 16 hours are not met in one week, interns can make up the hours the following week as long as the 16 hours are met in one pay period. If the 16-hour weekly minimum is not met, pay will be reduced accordingly. There is no additional compensation for extra hours worked over the 16-hours for transcript production.
